Research Shows Ad Hustler Is One Of The Most Read Affiliate Blogs

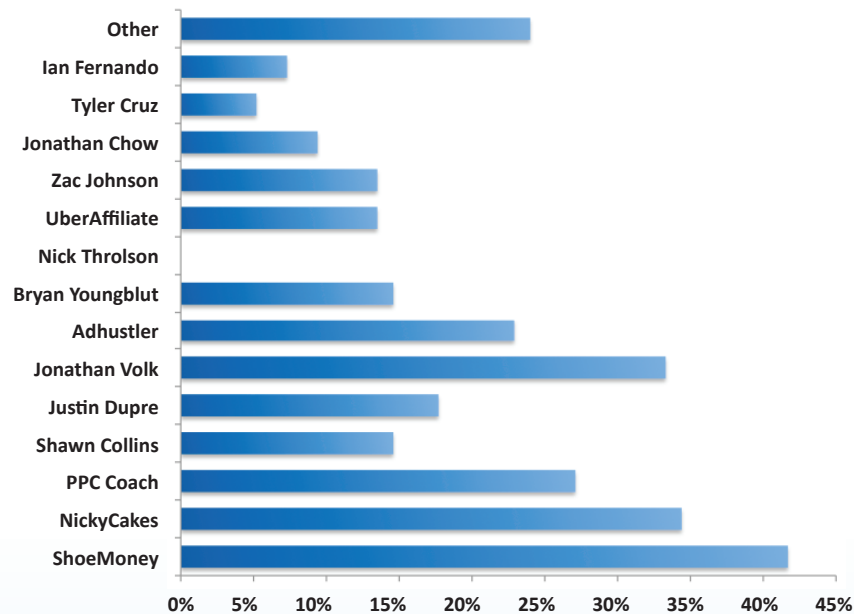

TattoMedia recently published a report with research related to the affiliate industry. One of the research pieces they did which I found interesting was the survey "Which Affiliate Industry Blogs Do You Read Most." AdHustler.com ranked at a very respectable 5th most popular (considering the million friggen affiliate blogs nowadays). I am pretty proud of this and have each one of you readers to THANK for helping my voice be heard.

The top 5 most read blogs were:

- #1 Shoemoney (of course)
- #2 NickyCakes (always a solid source of info)
- #3 Jonathan Volk (Good guy)
- #4 PPC Coach (Huh? Does this guy even have a blog?)
- #5 Ad Hustler

Below is the graphic showing all the rankings as well as other bloggers and how they ranked.

If you were Nick Throlson wouldn't you just give up at this point?

There is a lot of other interesting information in this report so check it out here: Tatto Media 2010 Bi-Annual Affiliate Survey Report.
